1. NATURE AND CONTINUANCE OF OPERATIONS

Neptune Digital Assets Corp. (the “Company” or “Neptune”) (formerly Neptune Dash Technologies Corp.) was incorporated on October 31, 2017 under the laws of the province of British Columbia. On December 17, 2020, the Company changed its name to Neptune Digital Assets Corp. The Company’s shares are listed on the TSX Venture Exchange (TSX-V) under the symbol DASH. The head office, registered and records office of the Company is located in Vancouver, BC.

Neptune is engaged in the business that builds, owns and operates digital currency infrastructure assets. Its core assets are digital currencies and its primary business model is to stake various digital currencies and invest in blockchain technologies in order to maximize profitability.

On February 16, 2018 the Company incorporated a wholly owned subsidiary, Neptune Stake Technologies Corp. (“Neptune Stake”) which holds a portfolio of digital currencies.

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes that the Company will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company is subject to risks and uncertainties common to digital currency companies, including technological change, potential infringement on intellectual property of and by third parties, new product development, regulatory approval and market acceptance of its products, activities of competitors and its limited operating history. Management is aware, in making its assessment, of material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt upon the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

In March 2020 the World Health Organization declared coronavirus COVID-19 a global pandemic. This contagious disease outbreak, which has continued to spread, and any related adverse public health developments, has adversely affected workforces, economies, and financial markets globally, potentially leading to an economic downturn. It is not possible for the Company to predict the duration or magnitude of the adverse results of the outbreak and its effects on the Company’s ability to raise funds in the future, however the Company has not been significantly impacted by the outbreak and its effects.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Statement of compliance

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared using accounting policies consistent with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and interpretations issued by the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (“IFRIC”).

Basis of presentation

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”).

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements are prepared on historical costs, except for financial instruments classified as fair value through profit or loss. In addition, these condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting except for cash flow information. The functional currency of the Company is Canadian dollars.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Basis of Consolidation

These condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Neptune Stake Technologies Corp. All inter-company balances and transactions are eliminated on consolidation.

Significant accounting judgments and estimates

The preparation of the condensed consolidated interim financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised and in any future periods affected. Significant estimates include the valuation and impairment of Dash digital tokens and other digital currencies, and share-based payment calculations.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and further periods if the review affects both current and future periods.

Significant judgments

Critical judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the evaluation of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern

- (i) Going concern - The assessment of the Company's ability to execute its strategy by effectively operating the Company involves judgment. Management closely monitors the operations and cash flows in the Company. Further information regarding going concern is outlined in Note 1.
- (ii) Income taxes - Management exercises judgment to determine the extent to which deferred tax assets are recoverable and can therefore be recognized in the statements of financial position and comprehensive income or loss.
- (iii) Functional currency - The functional currency of the Company has been assessed by management based on consideration of the currency and economic factors that mainly influence the Company's digital currencies, production and operating costs, financing and related transactions. Specifically, the Company considers the currencies in which digital currencies are most commonly denominated and expenses are settled by each entity as well as the currency in which each entity receives or raises financing. Changes to these factors may have an impact on the judgment applied in the determination of the Company's functional currency.
- (iv) Digital currencies - Digital currencies are considered to be an identifiable non-monetary asset without physical substance. Management has determined that the digital currencies are treated as intangible asset in accordance with IAS 38 "Intangible Assets".

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)Significant accounting judgments and estimates (continued)Significant estimates*

- (i) Digital currency valuation - Digital currencies consist of cryptocurrency denominated assets (Note 3) and are included in both current and long-term assets. Digital currencies such as DASH and ATOM are carried at their fair market value determined by the spot rate based on the hourly volume weighted average from www.cryptocompare.com. The other digital currencies are carried at their fair market value determined by the spot rate based on volume weighted average from www.coinmarketcap.com. The digital currency market is still a new market and is highly volatile; historical prices are not necessarily indicative of future value; a significant change in the market prices for digital currencies would have a significant impact on the Company's earnings and financial position. In addition, management estimates that selling costs will be nominal.

Digital currency prices are affected by various forces including global supply and demand, interest rates, exchange rates, inflation or deflation and the global political and economic conditions. A decline in the market prices for coins could negatively impact the Company's future operations. The Company has not hedged the conversion of any of its digital currencies.

- (ii) Share based compensation - The Company utilizes the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model ("Black-Scholes") to estimate the fair value of stock options granted to directors, employees, and consultants. The use of Black-Scholes requires management to make various estimates and assumptions that impact the value assigned to the stock options including the forecast future volatility of the stock price, the risk-free interest rate, dividend yield and the expected life of the stock options. Any changes in these assumptions could have a material impact on the share-based compensation calculation value, however the most significant estimate is the volatility. Expected future volatility can be difficult to estimate as the Company has had limited history and is in a unique industry, and historical volatility is not necessarily indicative of future volatility.

3. DIGITAL CURRENCIES

Digital currencies are recorded at their fair value on the acquisition date or when they are received as revenues and are revalued at their current market value at each reporting date. Fair value is determined from digital currency exchanges. During the period ended November 30, 2020, the Company reclassified the balance of its current digital currencies to non-current assets. A summary of the digital currency balances is as follows:

As at November 31, 2020, $nil ($nil as at August 31, 2020) incentive stock options were outstanding.

Share-based payments

The Company has a stock option plan under which it is authorized to grant options to directors, employees and consultants to acquire up to 10% of the issued and outstanding common stock. The exercise price of each option is based on the market price of the Company's stock for a period preceding the date of grant. The options can be granted for a maximum term of 10 years and vest as determined by the board of directors.

During the period ended November 30, 2020 and the year ended August 31, 2020 the Company did not grant any stock options and in the year ended August 31, 2020 cancelled all 6,075,000 stock options previously held by directors, officers, employees, and consultants.

Restricted share units

The Company has a long-term restricted share unit plan ("RSU's"). The RSU's entitle directors, officers or employees to common shares of the Company upon vesting, based on vesting terms determined by the Company's Board of Directors at the time of grant.

During the year ended August 31, 2018 the Company granted 1,580,000 RSU's which vest over the course of three years, such that 33.33% vest every 12 months. During the year ended August 31, 2019, 30,000 RSU's were forfeited. During the year ended August 31, 2020 of the remaining unvested 1,033,333 RSU's, 533,333 RSU's held by former officers and directors were cancelled. In connection with the cancellation, the Company recognized a recovery to share-based compensation of $179,012. During the year ended August 31, 2020, the second tranche of RSU's vested and the Company issued 250,000 common shares. For the period ended November 30, 2020, the Company recognized $10,416 in share-based compensation related to the remaining RSU's.

During the year ended August 31, 2020, the Company granted 280,001 RSU's to certain consultants, officers, and directors. The RSU's vested immediately and shares were issued concurrent with the tranche of vested RSU's as discussed above. The new RSU's were valued at $0.145 per RSU and $40,600 was recognized directly to share-based compensation. The aggregate impact of the cancelled RSU's and the new issuance resulted in the recognition of a recovery of $72,439 (2019 – expense of $310,139) to share-based compensation on the consolidated statements of income (loss) and comprehensive income (loss) for the year ended August 31, 2020.

10. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Classification

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts payable and due to related party. The Company classifies its cash and short-term investments as fair value through profit and loss, and accounts payable and loans as financial liabilities recognized at amortized cost. The carrying amount of cash, short-term investments, accounts payable and loans approximate their carrying values because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

Fair values

The Company classifies its fair value measurements in accordance with an established hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs in valuation techniques used to measure fair value as follows:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and

Level 3 – Inputs that are not based on observable market date.

The following table sets forth the Company's financial assets measured at fair value by level within the fair value hierarchy as at November 30, 2020

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Financial assets
Cash	43,486	-	-
Short-term investments	-	248,211	-
Total financial assets	43,486	248,211	-

The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. Financial instruments which are potentially subject to credit risk for the Company consist of cash and digital currencies.

The carrying amount of financial assets represents the maximum credit exposure. The Company has gross credit exposure at November 30, 2020 relating to cash of 43,486 and loan receivable of $1,281,824. All cash is held at Canadian chartered banks, which minimizes credit risk.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that an entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities when due. The Company manages Company-wide cash projections centrally and regularly updates projections for changes in business and fluctuations caused in digital currency prices and exchange rates.

10. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Interest risk

Interest risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in market risk. The Company's exposure to interest rate risk is limited and only relates to its ability to earn interest income on cash balances at variable rates. Changes in short term interest rates will not have a significant effect on the fair value of the Company's cash account.

Foreign currency risk

Currency risk relates to the risk that the fair values or future cash flows of the Company's financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. Exchange rate fluctuations may affect the costs that the Company incurs in the future in its operations as well as the currency in which the Company has historically raised capital. The Company is not currently exposed to significant currency risk as the Company's presentation currency is the Canadian dollar and major purchases and financings to date have been transacted in Canadian dollars.

11. SEGMENTED INFORMATION

The Company's sole operation is in Canada. Accordingly, the chief decision makers consider the Company to currently have one segment and, therefore, segmented information is not presented.
